EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with William Gill, Reg. No. 44,124, on September 17, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 1, line 7: Replace "." With --, wherein the EAT is equal to the time required from the completion of one command to the start of the next command plus one revolution multiplied by the probability of a seek, read, or write error, and wherein the incentive term includes a starting value, a delay, and a rate of increase.—.

Claim 12, line 6: Replace "." With --, wherein the EAT is equal to the time required from the completion of one command to the start of the next command plus one revolution multiplied by the probability of a seek, read, or write error, and wherein the incentive term includes a starting value, a delay, and a rate of increase.—.

Claim 23, line 7: Replace "." With --, wherein the EAT is equal to the time required from the completion of one command to the start of the next command plus one revolution multiplied by the probability of a seek, read, or write error, and wherein the incentive term includes a starting value, a delay, and a rate of increase.—.

Claim 34, line 6: Replace "." With --, wherein the EAT is equal to the time required from the completion of one command to the start of the next command plus one revolution multiplied by the probability of a seek, read, or write error, and wherein the incentive term includes a starting value, a delay, and a rate of increase.—.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of Howe et al. teaches similar command queuing but fails to teach the combination including the limitation of wherein the EAT is equal to the time required from the completion of one command to the start of the next command plus one revolution multiplied by the probability of a seek, read, or write error, and wherein the incentive term includes a starting value, a delay, and a rate of increase.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
